

Fawn Fritzen & Grant Simpson

The duo

Fawn and Grant have a playful chemistry that charms while it entertains. The Whitehorse, Yukon duo has collaborated on musical projects that span a century of songwriting traditions.

They deliver a crowd-pleasing mix of swing, folk, pop, and contemporary music.

In her debut album, Bedroom Voice (released March 2013), Fawn's voice is warm, rich, and willingly vulnerable, with hints of Karen Carpenter, Julie London, and Barbra Streisand. On his CBC Music blog, Tim Tamashiro recognized Fawn as one of Canada's "top swingers".

Grant Simpson has been a musician all his life and is recognized as one of Canada's leading stride piano players. He has recorded four albums of his own (most recently the January 2014 Two-Piano Tornado) and he appeared on countless other recordings.

Between the two of them Fawn and Grant have given over 100 performances in the past year, including shows in Whitehorse, Vancouver, Ottawa, St. John's, Nanjing, and Taipei.

"A set of pipes that can conduct...a powerful singer with a really clean style."
